LICENSE AGREEMENT - GLOBAL VERSION

Format Version : 2.4E
Last Updated : August 26, 2026.
Language : English

These license terms are an agreement between you and RANDOM ARMESE HITEMIT. They apply to the software named above and to the associated documentation files provided under this license. The terms also apply to any services or updates for the software, except to the extent those have additional terms.

Unless otherwise stated, these license terms remain in effect for this version of the software and any updates or revisions released. RANDOM ARMESE HITEMIT may update or modify these license terms at any time. It is your responsibility to regularly review the license terms and any related announcements. By continuing to use the software after changes are posted, you agree to the updated terms.

IF YOU COMPLY WITH THESE LICENSE TERMS, YOU HAVE THE RIGHTS BELOW

Definitions

For the purposes of this document, the following names and terms are referred to as follows:

DEFINED TERM	DESIGNATION
RANDOM ARMESE HITEMIT	Provider

Please Note: Designation terms are displayed in purple and underlined, while defined terms are displayed in purple and italicized.

1. OVERVIEW

Software and Licensed Materials Scope, License Model, Ownership, Notices, Governing Scope, and Definitions

- a. Software and Licensed Materials. The Software and other Licensed Materials may include software source code, object code, compiled binaries, libraries, modules, headers, scripts, programs, utilities, configuration files, documentation, documents, texts, written works, records, specifications, notices, policies, agreements, forms, examples, technical materials, assets, data files, multimedia content, and other works, content, files, or materials distributed by Provider, whether provided with the Software, as part of the Software, or as a standalone work or item. License Model. The Software and other Licensed Materials are provided under the terms of this license. Subject to the conditions stated below, permission is granted, free of charge, to any person obtaining a copy of the Software or other Licensed Materials to use, copy, modify, merge, publish, distribute, sublicense, and/or sell copies of the applicable Software or Licensed Materials.
- b. Copyright Ownership and License Notices. The copyright and ownership rights in the Software and other Licensed Materials are retained by Provider unless otherwise expressly stated in a separate written agreement. The copyright notice, license notice, permission notice, attribution notice, and other required ownership information must be included in all copies or substantial portions of the applicable Software or Licensed Materials where these license terms require their preservation.
- c. Governing Scope and Definitions. These terms govern the use, copying, modification, distribution, publication, integration, testing, deployment, performance, display, incorporation, and other dealings in the Software and other Licensed Materials to the extent permitted by this license. In these license terms, "Licensed Materials" means the Software and any other document, text, written work, record, specification, technical material, file, asset, data, content, or other work or material distributed by Provider under these license terms. "Software" means any program, application, source code, object code, compiled binary, library, module, script, utility, runtime, or other software component included in or distributed as part of the Licensed Materials. "You" means the person or legal entity obtaining, using, copying, modifying, distributing, publishing, or otherwise dealing in the Software or Licensed Materials. "Owner" means Provider.

2. INSTALLATION AND USE RIGHTS

a. General Permission, Individual and Organisational Use, Development, Testing, and Internal Infrastructure

- i. General. Subject to these license terms, you may use the Software for lawful development, testing, research, educational, personal, internal, commercial, or other purposes.
- ii. Individual Use. An individual may obtain, install, execute, modify, and use the Software for the individual's own purposes, including the development, testing, operation, and distribution of other software.
- iii. Organisational Use. An organisation may use the Software internally and may permit its employees, contractors, and authorised personnel to use the Software within the scope of their authorised activities.
- iv. Development and Testing. The Software may be used to develop, compile, build, test, inspect, debug, analyse, and maintain software and other technical materials.
- v. Internal Servers and Build Systems. You may use the Software on devices, servers, virtual machines, containers, development environments, build systems, or other infrastructure under your control, provided that such use complies with applicable law and these license terms.

b. Commercial, Demonstration, Backup, and Conditioned Exercise of the Licensed Rights

- i. Commercial Use. Nothing in these license terms prohibits commercial use of the Software. You may use the Software in commercial development, commercial products, internal business systems, services, or other lawful commercial activities.
- ii. Demonstration Use. The Software may be used to demonstrate software, systems, features, or technical capabilities developed with or through use of the Software.
- iii. Backup Copies. You may make reasonable backup copies of the Software for archival, recovery, maintenance, or reinstallation purposes.
- iv. No Separation of Rights. Permission to use, copy, modify, publish, distribute, sublicense, and sell the Software is granted only subject to the conditions expressly stated in these license terms.

3. CONDITIONS OF USE

a. Lawful Operation, Security, Ownership Representation, and Preservation of Required Notices

- i. Lawful Use. You may use the Software only in a lawful manner and in accordance with applicable laws, regulations, contractual obligations, and third-party rights.
- ii. Security and Responsible Use. You must not knowingly use the Software for unauthorised access, credential theft, malware distribution, destructive activity, fraud, sabotage, unlawful surveillance, data destruction, or attacks against systems, networks, devices, organisations, or individuals.

- iii. Ownership Misrepresentation. You must not falsely claim that you are the original author or copyright holder of the Software.
- iv. Notices. You must not remove or intentionally conceal copyright notices, license notices, attribution notices, disclaimers, or other ownership information contained in the Software or in substantial copies of the Software.

b. Third-Party Rights, Data Authority, and Operational Safeguards

- i. Third-Party Rights. You are responsible for ensuring that your use of the Software does not infringe the intellectual property, privacy, contractual, or other legal rights of third parties.
- ii. Data and Files. If you use the Software to access, modify, process, delete, transfer, or manage data, you are responsible for ensuring that you have the legal authority to perform those operations.
- iii. Operational Safety. You are responsible for taking appropriate backups and other safeguards before using the Software with important files, system-level data, production systems, repositories, or other sensitive environments.

4. INSIDERS, PREVIEWS, AND PRE-RELEASE SOFTWARE AND MATERIALS

a. Availability, Evaluation, and Experimental Character of Pre-Release Materials

- i. Pre-Release Materials. Provider may, but is not required to, provide experimental, preview, beta, development, nightly, test, or otherwise pre-release versions of the Software.
- ii. Evaluation. Pre-release versions may be used for evaluation, development, testing, research, or other purposes permitted by the accompanying release terms.
- iii. Experimental Nature. Pre-release versions may contain defects, incomplete features, incompatible interfaces, temporary implementations, security vulnerabilities, or behavior that differs substantially from a final release.

b. Changes, Support Limitations, and Additional Terms for Unreleased Components

- i. Changes. Provider may change, replace, suspend, discontinue, or remove pre-release functionality at any time.
- ii. Support. Provider is not obligated to provide maintenance, technical support, compatibility guarantees, or updates for pre-release versions unless separately stated.
- iii. Unreleased Components. Components explicitly identified as experimental, preview, beta, development, or unreleased may be subject to additional terms supplied with those components.

5. FEEDBACK

Feedback Rights, Compensation, Confidentiality, and Survival of Granted Rights

- a. Feedback. If you voluntarily provide feedback, suggestions, recommendations, bug reports, technical reports, feature requests, or other comments concerning the Software, you grant Provider a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive, royalty-free right to use, reproduce, modify, publish, distribute, display, and otherwise use that feedback for any lawful purpose. No Compensation. Unless a separate written agreement states otherwise, feedback does not create a right to compensation, royalties, ownership, or other payment.
- b. Third-Party Confidential Information. You should not provide feedback containing confidential information belonging to another person or organisation where disclosure would violate your legal or contractual obligations. Survival. The rights granted under this section continue after termination or cessation of use of the Software.

6. DATA

a. Local Processing, User Responsibility, Personal Data, and Legal Compliance

- i. Local Data. Depending on its implementation and configuration, the Software may read, create, modify, process, store, or delete local files, configuration data, registry-like data, logs, cache data, metadata, and other technical information.
- ii. User Responsibility. You are responsible for understanding the data processed by the Software and for ensuring that its use complies with applicable law and your own organisational policies.
- iii. Personal Data. Where you use the Software with personal data, you are responsible for determining the appropriate lawful basis, notices, permissions, safeguards, retention practices, and other obligations applicable to that processing.

b. Third-Party Data, Telemetry, Online Features, and Data Ownership

- i. Third-Party Data. You must not use the Software to obtain, extract, modify, or disclose information that you do not have authorisation to access or process.
- ii. Telemetry and Online Features. A specific version of the Software may contain telemetry, logging, update checking, online activation, network communication, crash reporting, or other online functionality. Where such functionality exists, its applicable behavior should be determined from the documentation, configuration, or additional terms accompanying that version.
- iii. Data Ownership. Nothing in these license terms transfers ownership of your data to Provider.

7. TERMS FOR SPECIFIC COMPONENTS

a. Included Components, Third-Party Components, and Open-Source Licensing

- i. Components. The Software may contain multiple modules, libraries, headers, tools, utilities, examples, runtimes, scripts, or other components.
- ii. Third-Party Components. Individual components may be subject to separate licenses, copyright notices, legal notices, or other terms supplied with those components.
- iii. Open Source Components. Where a component is distributed under an open source license, the terms of that license apply to that component to the extent required by the applicable open source license.

b. Separate Notices, Dependencies, Package Managers, and External Services

- i. Separate Notices. If a component is accompanied by a separate license notice, attribution requirement, or redistribution requirement, you must comply with those requirements when using or distributing that component.
- ii. Package Managers and Dependencies. Software packages, dependencies, libraries, frameworks, runtimes, compilers, package-manager downloads, and other third-party materials obtained separately from the Software may be governed by their own licenses and are not automatically governed by these license terms.
- iii. External Services. Third-party online services integrated with or used by the Software may be governed by separate agreements and privacy terms.

8. DISTRIBUTABLE CODE AND OTHER LICENSED MATERIALS

a. Core Rights to Copy, Modify, Distribute, Compile, and Create Derivative Software

- i. Right to Use and Distribute. Subject to these license terms and the licenses applicable to included components, you may copy and distribute the Software and modifications of the Software.
- ii. Modified Versions. You may modify the source code and distribute modified versions, provided that all applicable copyright notices, license notices, and attribution requirements are preserved.
- iii. Object Code. You may distribute object-code and compiled forms of the Software, including compiled versions incorporating your modifications.
- iv. Derivative Software. You may create software based on, incorporating, linking against, embedding, or otherwise using the Software, subject to the applicable terms of this license and any third-party licenses.

b. Sublicensing, Commercial Distribution, Required Notices, and No False Endorsement

- i. Sublicensing. You may sublicense copies of the Software to third parties, provided that the original copyright and permission notices and required disclaimers are preserved and the sublicense does not remove rights granted by this license.
- ii. Commercial Distribution. You may sell copies of the Software, sell products incorporating the Software, charge for services involving the Software, or otherwise engage in commercial distribution, subject to these license terms.
- iii. Distribution Notices. A distributed copy or substantial portion of the Software must include the copyright notice and permission notice required by this license.
- iv. No False Endorsement. You must not represent that Provider has endorsed, sponsored, certified, or officially approved a product or service solely because that product or service incorporates or uses the Software, unless such endorsement has been separately granted in writing.

9. DEVELOPING EXTENSIONS

a. Extension, Plug-In, Integration, and Compatibility Development Rights

- i. Extensions. You may develop extensions, plug-ins, integrations, adapters, wrappers, scripts, modules, tools, or other software that interacts with or uses the Software.
- ii. No Unauthorised Access. Extensions must not be designed to bypass authorisation controls, security mechanisms, or access restrictions for which you do not have permission.
- iii. Compatibility. Extension authors are responsible for testing installation, uninstallation, compatibility, and operation of their extensions.

b. Non-Interference Requirements and Independent Responsibility for Extensions

- i. No Degrading the Software. You should design extensions and integrations so that they do not intentionally corrupt, disable, or materially interfere with the Software or other users' authorised use of the Software.
- ii. Independent Responsibility. An extension, plug-in, module, or derivative system created by you remains your responsibility. Provider does not assume responsibility for third-party extensions or modifications.

10. SECURITY POLICY

a. Lawful Security Testing, Vulnerability Discovery, and Responsible Reporting

- i. Security Testing. You may inspect, test, analyse, and evaluate the Software for lawful security research, debugging, compatibility, and development purposes.

- ii. Unauthorised Exploitation. You must not use the Software or a discovered vulnerability to gain unauthorised access to systems, accounts, devices, repositories, services, or data.
- iii. Security Reports. Security vulnerabilities should be reported responsibly through an appropriate communication channel where one is available.

b. Harmful Disclosure, Protective Measures, and Infrastructure Restrictions

- i. Harmful Disclosure. Public disclosure of an unpatched vulnerability should be handled responsibly where immediate disclosure could materially enable exploitation or cause harm.
- ii. Protective Measures. You must not intentionally use the Software to create or distribute credential theft tools, destructive payloads, unauthorised persistence mechanisms, malicious software, or data exfiltration mechanisms.
- iii. Infrastructure. You must not intentionally interfere with repositories, servers, package registries, build systems, update systems, communication systems, databases, or other infrastructure associated with the Software or its distribution without authorisation.

11. SCOPE OF LICENSE

a. Licensed Rights, Ownership Boundary, and Express Permissions

- i. License, Not Transfer of Ownership. The Software is licensed, not sold. Except for the ownership of the copyright itself, this license grants rights to use and deal in the Software as expressly stated in these license terms.
- ii. Rights Granted. Subject to compliance with the conditions of this license, you receive permission to use, copy, modify, merge, publish, distribute, sublicense, and sell copies of the Software.
- iii. No Implied Rights. No patent, trademark, trade-name, publicity, privacy, or other right is granted by implication except to the extent necessary to exercise the rights expressly granted by this license or otherwise required by applicable law.
- iv. Technical Limitations. You remain responsible for complying with technical limitations, authentication requirements, system restrictions, and other lawful restrictions that are external to the copyright license itself.

b. Copyright Notices, Lawful Use, and Third-Party Restrictions

- i. Copyright Notice. You may not remove the copyright notice or this permission notice from copies or substantial portions of the Software where this license requires those notices to be preserved.
- ii. Lawful Use. You may not use the Software in violation of applicable law.
- iii. Third-Party Restrictions. The Software may interact with third-party components or services that have separate terms. Those third-party terms remain applicable to the extent legally required.

12. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY AND COPYRIGHT

a. Copyright Ownership, Attribution, and Derivative Works

- i. Copyright. Copyright in the Software is held by Provider unless otherwise stated for a particular component.
- ii. Attribution. The copyright notice identifies the copyright holder and must be preserved in copies and substantial portions of the Software as required by this license.
- iii. Derivative Works. You may modify the Software and create derivative works under this license.

b. Independent Works, Trademark Boundaries, and False Authorship

- i. Independent Works. Works created independently of the Software remain the property of their respective authors, subject to any rights arising from the Software included in or incorporated into those works.
- ii. Trademarks. Nothing in these license terms grants rights to use any trademark, service mark, trade name, or branding of Provider except as reasonably necessary to identify the origin of the Software or as otherwise permitted by law.
- iii. False Authorship. You must not falsely claim authorship of the original Software.

13. SUPPORT

a. No Guaranteed Support and the Conditions Governing Available Support Channels

- i. No Guaranteed Support. Because the Software is provided "AS IS", Provider is not obligated to provide technical support, maintenance, updates, fixes, compatibility services, or other assistance unless separately agreed.
- ii. Support Channels. If support channels are made available, Provider may establish requirements for submitting bug reports, technical questions, security reports, or other requests.

b. No Warranty Through Support and Separate Third-Party Support Terms

- i. No Warranty Through Support. A support response, technical explanation, example, workaround, comment, or code sample does not create a warranty or modify this license unless expressly stated in a separate written agreement.
- ii. Third-Party Support. Support provided by third parties is subject to the terms established by those third parties.

14. UPDATES, COMPATIBILITY, AND DISCONTINUATION

a. Updates, Revisions, Compatibility, and Technical Change Across Versions

- i. Updates. Provider may publish updates, revisions, patches, improvements, corrections, replacements, or new versions of the Software.
- ii. Compatibility. APIs, internal interfaces, file formats, configuration formats, library behavior, binary formats, protocols, and other technical characteristics may change between versions.
- iii. Unsupported Versions. Provider is not required to maintain compatibility with obsolete versions, unofficial modifications, unsupported platforms, unauthorised forks, or outdated dependencies.

b. Discontinuation, Unsupported Environments, Continued Use, and Independent Backups

- i. Discontinuation. Provider may discontinue a version, feature, package, release channel, documentation page, distribution mechanism, or support channel.
- ii. Continued Use. Continued use, copying, modification, or distribution of the Software after updated license terms are published constitutes acceptance of those updated terms to the extent permitted by applicable law.
- iii. Independent Backups. You are responsible for maintaining backups of source code, data, configuration, and other materials necessary to continue your operations after an update or discontinuation.

15. DISCLAIMER OF WARRANTY

a. As-Is Provision, Express and Implied Warranty Disclaimers, and User Risk

- i. As-Is. THE SOFTWARE IS PROVIDED "AS IS", WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED.

- ii. No Express Warranty. Provider DOES NOT GUARANTEE THAT THE SOFTWARE WILL BE ERROR-FREE, UNINTERRUPTED, SECURE, COMPATIBLE WITH EVERY ENVIRONMENT, OR SUITABLE FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.
 - iii. No Implied Warranty. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, Provider DISCLAIMS WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE, AND NON-INFRINGEMENT.
- b. Operational Care and Disclaimer of Third-Party Software, Services, Data, and Materials
- i. User Risk. YOU USE THE SOFTWARE AT YOUR OWN RISK.
 - ii. Operational Environments. Particular care should be taken when using the Software with production systems, system-level configuration, important files, critical infrastructure, automated processes, irreversible operations, or sensitive information.
 - iii. Third-Party Materials. Provider DOES NOT WARRANT THIRD-PARTY SOFTWARE, LIBRARIES, SERVICES, DATA, PACKAGES, OR OTHER MATERIALS THAT MAY BE USED WITH OR DISTRIBUTED ALONGSIDE THE SOFTWARE.

16. LIMITATION ON DAMAGES

a. General Liability Limitation and Categories of Excluded Loss

- i. General Limitation. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, Provider AND THE AUTHORS OR COPYRIGHT HOLDERS SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ANY CLAIM, DAMAGES, OR OTHER LIABILITY ARISING FROM, OUT OF, OR IN CONNECTION WITH THE SOFTWARE OR THE USE OR OTHER DEALINGS IN THE SOFTWARE.
- ii. Categories of Loss. This includes, without limitation, direct damages, indirect damages, incidental damages, consequential damages, special damages, lost profits, lost revenue, business interruption, loss of data, data corruption, system failure, security incidents, service interruption, or other losses, except to the extent liability cannot lawfully be excluded.
- iii. User Actions. No liability is assumed for losses caused by misuse, unauthorised use, misconfiguration, modification, incompatible environments, unsupported platforms, third-party software, failure to maintain backups, or unlawful activity.

b. Third-Party Components and Mandatory-Law Exceptions

- i. Third-Party Components. No liability is assumed for failures, defects, vulnerabilities, or changes in third-party libraries, services, operating systems, compilers, package managers, platforms, or infrastructure.
- ii. Mandatory Law. Nothing in these license terms excludes or limits liability where such exclusion or limitation is prohibited by applicable law.

17. USER RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

a. User Rights Concerning Use, Distribution, Modification, Derivative Works, and Technical Reporting

- i. You may use the Software as permitted by these license terms.
- ii. You may copy, modify, merge, publish, distribute, sublicense, and sell copies of the Software, subject to the conditions of this license.
- iii. You may create derivative works and integrate the Software into other software.
- iv. You may use the Software for commercial and non-commercial purposes.
- v. You may report bugs, compatibility issues, vulnerabilities, and other technical concerns.

b. User Obligations Concerning Notices, Law, Third-Party Rights, Authorship, Responsibility, and Backups

- i. You must preserve the copyright notice and permission notice where required by these license terms.
- ii. You must comply with applicable law.
- iii. You must respect third-party intellectual property, confidentiality, privacy, and contractual rights.
- iv. You must not falsely claim ownership or authorship of the original Software.
- v. You are responsible for the software, products, services, systems, and data that you create or operate using the Software.
- vi. You are responsible for backing up data before performing potentially destructive operations.

18. OWNER RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

a. Owner Rights Concerning Future Releases, Documentation, Restructuring, and Support

- i. Provider may publish new versions, revisions, updates, or additional documentation.
- ii. Provider may modify, restructure, replace, suspend, or discontinue future releases.
- iii. Provider may decline to provide support for unsupported versions or environments.
- iv. Provider may publish revised license terms for future versions.

b. Owner Obligations, Applicable Distribution Terms, and Identification of Separate Third-Party Terms

- i. The copyright holder retains the rights granted to the copyright holder under applicable law.
- ii. The Software is provided under the license terms accompanying the applicable distribution.
- iii. Where separate terms apply to third-party components, those terms should be identified through the applicable notices or accompanying documentation.

19. INSTALLATION, DISTRIBUTION, AND REDISTRIBUTION OF LICENSED MATERIALS

a. Copying, Redistribution, Republished Copies, and Required License Notices

- i. Copies. You may make copies of the Software subject to the copyright and permission notice requirements of this license.
- ii. Redistribution. You may distribute the Software by download, physical media, source repository, package registry, archive, installer, software package, or other lawful means.
- iii. Republished Copies. A redistribution must not remove or materially alter required copyright notices or the permission notice.

b. Repackaging, Mirrors, and Commercial Inclusion of the Software

- i. Repackaging. You may repackage the Software as part of another software distribution, provided that doing so complies with this license and all applicable third-party terms.
- ii. Mirrors. You may maintain mirrors or alternative distribution locations for the Software, subject to preservation of applicable notices and compliance with applicable law.
- iii. Commercial Packages. You may include the Software in commercial products and services.

20. COMPLAINTS AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

a. Communications, Technical Reports, and Good-Faith Handling of Requests

- i. Communications. Questions concerning ownership, licensing, security, support, distribution, or other matters may be submitted through an appropriate communication channel made available by Provider.

- ii. Technical Reports. Bug reports and security reports should contain sufficient information to allow the issue to be understood and evaluated.

b. Bad-Faith Conduct and Formal Dispute Resolution

- i. Bad-Faith Conduct. Provider may decline to respond to requests that are fraudulent, abusive, threatening, intentionally misleading, or otherwise made in bad faith.
- ii. Disputes. Where a dispute cannot be resolved through communication, it may be handled by the competent authority or court under applicable law.

21. TERMINATION

a. Voluntary Cessation of Use and Automatic Termination Following Violation

- i. Termination by User. You may stop using the Software at any time.
- ii. Automatic Termination of Rights for Violation. If you violate a condition of this license, the permissions granted to you under this license may terminate to the extent permitted by applicable law.

b. Effects of Termination and Provisions Intended to Continue After Termination

- i. Effect of Termination. Upon termination, you must cease exercising rights that have terminated under the license.
- ii. Continuing Rights. Copyright notices, disclaimers, limitations of liability, ownership provisions, and other provisions that by their nature are intended to survive termination shall continue to apply.

22. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

a. Entire Agreement, Incorporated Terms, and Separate Component Licenses

- i. Entire Agreement. These license terms, together with any applicable supplemental terms, third-party licenses, notices, and written agreements expressly incorporated by reference, constitute the agreement governing the Software.
- ii. Conflicting Terms. Where a separate license expressly governs a particular third-party component, that component remains governed by its applicable separate license.

b. Amendments and the Limited Effect of Informal Communications

- i. Amendments. Changes to these terms are effective when published for the applicable version of the Software unless otherwise stated.
- ii. No Implied Modification. Statements made in documentation, issue discussions, support responses, examples, comments, or other communications do not modify this license unless a written agreement expressly states that they do.

23. SEVERABILITY

Invalid Provisions, Continuation of Remaining Terms, and No Waiver by Delay in Enforcement

- a. Invalid Provision. If any provision of these license terms is determined by a competent authority to be invalid, unlawful, or unenforceable, that provision shall be interpreted or limited to the minimum extent necessary. Remaining Terms. The remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect to the extent permitted by applicable law.
- b. No Waiver. Failure to enforce a provision immediately does not constitute a permanent waiver of the right to enforce that provision later.

24. APPLICABLE LAW

Applicable Law, Mandatory Legal Protections, and Competent Jurisdiction

- a. General. These license terms are governed by applicable law to the extent required or permitted by the jurisdiction governing the relevant transaction or dispute. Mandatory Law. Nothing in these license terms is intended to remove or restrict rights that cannot legally be excluded under applicable law.
- b. Jurisdiction. Disputes may be subject to the jurisdiction of a competent court or authority having lawful jurisdiction over the relevant party or transaction.

25. CONSUMER RIGHTS; REGIONAL VARIATIONS

a. Consumer Rights and Mandatory Statutory Protections Across Jurisdictions

- i. Consumer Rights. These license terms describe certain contractual and licensing rights. You may have additional rights under the laws of your country, state, province, or other jurisdiction.
- ii. Mandatory Protections. Where applicable law provides mandatory consumer protections, statutory guarantees, or rights that cannot be waived, those rights remain unaffected.

b. Regional Requirements and Preservation of Rights That Cannot Legally Be Excluded

- i. Regional Requirements. Where local law requires specific wording, notices, warranties, remedies, or limitations, the applicable mandatory requirements control to the extent of any conflict.
- ii. No Exclusion of Mandatory Rights. Nothing in these terms is intended to exclude rights that applicable law prohibits the parties from excluding.

26. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY AND THIRD-PARTY MATERIALS

Third-Party Software, Separate Licenses, Compliance Duties, and Ownership Boundaries

- a. Third-Party Software. The Software may include or interact with software distributed by third parties. Separate Licenses. Third-party components may be governed by their own copyright notices, licenses, attribution requirements, warranty disclaimers, and redistribution conditions.
- b. Compliance. You are responsible for complying with those third-party terms where applicable to your use or distribution. Ownership. No third-party intellectual property is transferred to you by these license terms.

27. FINAL TERMS

a. As-Is Terms, Permission to Use and Distribute, and Preservation of Required Notices

- i. "AS IS". THE SOFTWARE IS PROVIDED "AS IS", WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED.
- ii. Permission. Subject to the terms of this license, permission is granted free of charge to use, copy, modify, merge, publish, distribute, sublicense, and/or sell copies of the Software.
- iii. Notice Preservation. The copyright notice and this permission notice shall be included in all copies or substantial portions of the Software.
- iv. Liability. THE SOFTWARE IS PROVIDED WITHOUT WARRANTY, AND THE AUTHORS OR COPYRIGHT HOLDERS SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ANY CLAIM, DAMAGES, OR OTHER LIABILITY ARISING FROM, OUT OF, OR IN CONNECTION WITH THE SOFTWARE OR THE USE OR OTHER DEALINGS IN THE SOFTWARE.

b. Liability, Acceptance, Mandatory-Law Interpretation, and Continuing Provisions

- i. Acceptance. By exercising rights granted under this license, including by using, copying, modifying, publishing, distributing, sublicensing, or selling copies of the Software, you acknowledge and agree to be bound by the applicable terms of this license.

- ii. Interpretation. Where any provision of these terms conflicts with a mandatory requirement of applicable law, the mandatory requirement controls to the extent of the conflict.
- iii. Continuation. Provisions concerning copyright notices, disclaimers, limitation of liability, intellectual property, third-party licenses, and other provisions that are intended by their nature to survive shall continue after you cease using the Software.
